

Axis strengthens team with two new appointments

Monday, 07 April 2008 - Axis Communications, the global leader in the network video market, has appointed Howard Valentine and Sasha Davidson to further bolster its growing staff complement.

Howard joins Axis as channel manager and brings with him a wealth of experience gained from working with some of the leading brands in the local channel. Prior to joining Axis, Howard worked at Comztek as the local distributor's channel manager.

Sasha comes in to take up the position of key account manager. She joins Axis from Korbitec Solutions, where she worked as an account manager.

The duo brings new talent to the company that will see the network surveillance camera giant extend its reach into new markets and add further value to its existing customer base.
