

Axis Professional Services General Terms and Conditions

1 Scope and application.

1.1 The terms and conditions detailed herein (the "GTC") together with any Statement of Work ("SOW"), (collectively the "Agreement"), apply to your ("Customer", "You," or "Your") purchase from Axis of services related to the design, implementation, verification, use and maintenance of an IP Surveillance System involving Axis' network video products or any other services purchased by You and provided by Axis as further detailed in an SOW ("Professional Services"). Axis and Customer may be referred to herein collectively as the "Parties" and each individually as a "Party".

1.2 "Axis" means the Axis affiliate identified on the quote, order SOW or invoice, or in the absence of an identified Axis affiliate, Axis Communications AB (corporate registration number 556253-6143, with headquarters at Gränden 1, 223 69 Lund, Sweden).

1.3 In these GTC, the term "IP Surveillance System" means a system that encompasses several or all of the following: IP surveillance cameras; IP Video encoders; Access control systems; Voice over IP equipment; I/O modules; cabling and infrastructure; computer hardware and software; and video analytics.

1.4 Axis is not bound by and hereby expressly rejects, and Customer expressly waives, any terms and conditions in Customer's purchase order or other similar document.

1.5 These GTC shall apply to all SOWs concluded between the Parties regarding Customer's purchase of Professional Services from Axis. The Parties may amend or modify an executed SOW by a written agreement signed by both Parties.

1.6 In case of any inconsistency or conflict between, on the one side, the provisions of these GTC, and on the other side, any SOW, these GTC shall control and take precedence provided, however, that the terms of an SOW may supersede the terms of the these GTC, but only if specifically stated in the SOW and only for Professional Services provided pursuant to that SOW.

1.7 The scope of this Agreement concerns Professional Services (as defined above) only, and this Agreement does not constitute a purchase agreement for products or other services between Axis and Customer. Customer acknowledges that any purchase of Axis products – whether based on product recommendations provided as part of the Professional Services or not – must be made from an authorized Axis' distributor or reseller.

2 Customer obligations

Customer acknowledges and agrees that any Professional Services offered by Axis to Customer and the result thereof, will be highly dependent on information supplied by Customer to Axis. Therefore, and as a condition to Axis' obligations under this Agreement, Customer must provide such cooperation and assistance as Axis reasonably requests in connection with the Professional Services. Such cooperation and assistance will include, without limitation, (a) making Customer's personnel available to Axis for consultation, (b) providing such access to Customer's (or Customer's customers) premises, (c) responding promptly to any Axis request to provide direction, information, approvals, authorizations or decisions that are reasonably necessary for Axis to perform Professional Services in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, and ensure that any information provided is complete and accurate in all material respects and (d) obtaining and maintaining all necessary licenses and consents and comply with all applicable laws, regulations and other requirements of any governmental authority, to the extent that such licenses, consents and law relate to Customer's business, premises, personnel and equipment, in all cases before the date on which the Professional Services are to start and during the Term.

3 Delivery

Any time of delivery stated by Axis is Axis' best estimate of a calculated delivery date. If Axis has reason to believe the delivery cannot be effectuated on the expected delivery date, then Axis shall inform the Customer accordingly and advise when delivery is expected.

4 Acceptance

4.1 Unless otherwise stated in the applicable SOW, if Customer reasonably believes that Axis did not perform the Professional Services or the Axis Deliverables (as defined below) in substantial conformance with the applicable SOW, Customer shall notify Axis, in writing, within ten (10) business days following Axis' completion of the Professional Services (the "Acceptance Period"). Customer's notice must specifically identify and explain each alleged non-conformance with the terms of the applicable SOW. Axis will use reasonable efforts to correct Customer's issues.

4.2 If Axis does not receive Customer's notice under Section 4.1 within the Acceptance Period, the Professional Services and the Axis Deliverables (as defined below) will be deemed delivered and accepted by Customer, and Customer will have waived any right of rejection.

5 Fees, expenses and payment

5.1 In consideration of the Professional Services provided, Customer shall pay the fees specified in the applicable SOW.

5.2 Unless otherwise specified in the applicable SOW, Customer will reimburse Axis monthly for Axis' expenses related to the Professional Services including, but not limited to, any out-of-pocket expenses such as travel, lodging and related expenses and third-party expenses, as incurred in connection with each SOW. Axis will keep records related to such expenses and, upon Customer's request, submit copies of such records with the applicable invoice.

5.3 Unless otherwise specified in the SOW, all payments under this Agreement shall be made against invoice within thirty (30) days following the date of the invoice.

Invoiced amounts remaining unpaid after payment is due will accrue interest at a rate equal to the lesser of one and a half percent (1.5%) per month or the highest rate allowed by law. In addition, if Axis reasonably determines that Customer's financial condition materially deteriorates after the Effective Date, Axis may suspend performance under this Agreement and any SOW until Customer provides reasonable security to Axis; if such security is not provided to Axis within fifteen (15) days of the request, Axis may terminate this Agreement or any SOW entered into hereunder immediately upon written notice to Customer. Axis' acceptance of any partial payment of an invoice will not waive its rights as to remaining balances, nor in any way constitute accord and satisfaction. Axis is entitled to any reimbursable expenses associated with the collection of overdue amounts owed by Customer.

5.4 Customer will pay all applicable federal, state and local sales, use, value added, excise, duty and any other taxes of any nature assessed on the Professional Services or Axis Deliverables (as defined below), except for taxes based on Axis's revenue or income. In addition, in case the payment, in whole or in part, does not occur within the agreed term, Axis reserves the right to suspend deliveries or services in relation to all contracts with the given Customer until the date on which the balance is fully paid.

6 Intellectual Property Rights, Licenses

6.1 Unless otherwise specified in an SOW, any deliverables such as drawings, guidelines, technical specifications, reports, analyses, work products, software, designs, tools, tangible or intangible, supplied by Axis as part of the Professional Services and any modifications, improvements or derivative works of the foregoing resulting from or used in providing Professional Services ("Axis Deliverables") and any copyright and/or other rights related to trademarks, trade secrets, patents, patent applications or any other intellectual property or proprietary right, however arising ("Intellectual Property Rights") therein will remain the exclusive property of Axis, regardless of whether Customer has contributed to the conception or participated in the development of Axis Deliverables except as provided in Section 6.5 below.

Except as provided in this Section 6.2, the Axis Deliverables may not be reproduced, published or distributed without Axis' prior written consent.

6.3 In case the Axis Deliverables contain any software, the use of any such software by the Customer and Customer's customers is governed by and subject exclusively to the then current Axis General Software License Agreement, which can be found at www.axis.com.

6.4 With respect to any materials, documentation and software that Customer provides to Axis for the purpose of providing Professional Services ("Customer Provided Materials"), Customer represents and warrants that Customer has the necessary rights to provide the Customer Provided Materials to Axis, so that Axis can access, use and modify Customer Provided Materials as necessary for Axis' performance of the Professional Services.

6.5 The Customer will retain ownership of any and all Intellectual Property Rights in and to any Customer Provided Materials. Axis is hereby granted a non-exclusive license to use such materials for the sole purpose of providing professional services.

11.5 Each Party shall, through confidentiality undertakings with its employees and consultants, or through other appropriate measures, ensure compliance with the above duty of confidentiality.

The Disclosing Party will have the right, in addition to its other rights and remedies, to injunctive relief for any violation of this Section 11 by the Receiving Party without posting bond or by posting bond at the lowest amount required by law.

The Parties hereto are, and shall remain at all times during this Agreement, independent contractors. Neither Party (nor any agent, representative or employee of that Party) is the representative of the other Party for any purpose, and neither Party has the power or authority as agent, employee or in any other capacity to represent, act for, bind or otherwise create or assume any obligation on behalf of the other Party for any purpose whatsoever. Axis' personnel shall not be deemed employees or agents of Customer, and Axis has and hereby retains the right to exercise full control of and supervision over the performance, employment, direction, compensation and discharge of any and all of Axis' employees performing Professional Services hereunder.

15 Reliefs

15.1 Each Party shall be excused from fulfillment of any obligations under an Agreement to the extent that and for so long as such fulfillment is prevented or delayed in whole or in part by strikes, lockouts, or other labor disturbances or by causes beyond its reasonable control, such as fire, flood, war, embargoes, blockades, riots, governmental interference, Acts of God and defects or delays in deliveries by subcontractors if caused by any circumstances referred to in this Section.

Terms contained in any preprinted forms of Customer, or other documentation or electronic procurement system, including, without limitation, terms contained in any purchase order, invoice, written or electronic communication or correspondence, or click-wrap/click-through agreement, are null and void and without effect. Neither Party is relying on any representation, warranty, assurance or inducement not expressly set forth herein.

18 Publicity

No press release or public announcement of any kind, nor issuing of any promotional material, relating to an order or this Agreement or its contents shall be made by either Party without the other Party's written approval.

19 Assignment

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and assignees of the Parties. Subject to Section 12 above, neither Party shall have the right to assign this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder to any third party without the prior written consent of the other Party, save that Axis shall have a right to assign this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder to any of its affiliates and/or companies within the Axis group of companies without the prior written consent of the Customer.

20 Miscellaneous

20.1 No consent or waiver, express or implied, by either Party of any breach or default of the other Party in performing its obligations under this Agreement shall be deemed or construed to be a consent or waiver of any other breach or default by the other Party of the same or any other obligation hereunder. Any failure by one Party to complain of any act or failure to act of the other Party or to declare that other Party in default shall not constitute a waiver by the first Party of its rights under this Agreement. No waiver of any rights under this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by the Party purporting to give the same.

20.2 If any of the terms and provisions of this Agreement is determined to be void, voidable, illegal, invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the Parties shall amend that provision in such reasonable manner as achieves the intention of the Parties without illegality or, at the discretion of the Parties, such provision may be severed from this Agreement and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect as if such terms and provisions had not been a part of this Agreement.

20.3 All notices and statements shall be in writing and shall be delivered by email to the intended Party at the address and to the contact person set forth in the SOW (unless notification of a change of address and contact person is given in writing). Notice shall be deemed delivered on the date that the email is received. However, if the time of deemed receipt of any notice is not before 5.30 p.m. Customer's local time on a business day, then the notice is deemed to have been received at the commencement of business on the next business day.

20.5 The provisions of this Agreement are for the sole benefit of the Parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, confers on any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the above, a party shall not be prevented from disclosing such information in order to safeguard in the best possible way his rights vis-à-vis the other parties in connection with the dispute, or if obligated to do so pursuant to statute, regulation, a decision by an authority, a stock exchange agreement or similar.
