

Lund, Sweden, 18 December 2024

Statement regarding EU directives 2011/65/EU (incl. (EU) 2015/863), 2012/19/EU and 2023/1542/EU.

All products sold by Axis Communications AB comply with EU directives 2011/65/EU on Restriction of the use of certain Hazardous Substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS) including the amendment to Annex II described in Commission Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863*, 2012/19/EU on Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment (WEEE) and 2023/1542/EU on batteries and waste batteries.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Carl Trotzig".

Carl Trotzig
Director Environment & Supply Chain Sustainability
Axis Communications AB

\ Clarification: Axis Communications AB is aware that RoHS II exemptions that currently apply to some of our products were set to expire on July 21st, 2021 and is currently being evaluated by ECHA for an extension. Despite the fact that the exemptions are being evaluated regarding an extension, we will continue to actively search for alternatives and scrutinize viable (performance, quality and costs) options. Currently concerned exemptions as per Annex II, RoHS II are 6a-I, 6b-I, 6b-II, 6c, 7a, 7c-I, 7c-II, 13a and 15a.*