

Axis Communications' Academy

Seminar description

Network Video for IT Integrators Axis Business Seminar

Length: 4 hours

Format: seminar

Course description

The Business seminar provides information for IT-Integrator professionals that are considering expanding their offering to include network video. The course gives the audience insight in the market development over time and the accessible market in different industry verticals. It describes Axis' business model and route to market, products and features uniquely developed by Axis to address the growing demand in the industry.

Course objectives

You will learn:

- > About the network video business opportunity
- > To leverage on existing business
- > How Axis will become your preferred partner for network video

Who should attend?

IT integrator professionals looking for an insight in the rapidly growing network video market.

Prerequisites

IT industry background.

Register for this course at www.axis.com/academy/classroom-based.htm

Contact your sales office for more information about availability and price.